

- 1. Have you ever forgiven someone for doing something terrible? Why do you think Teddy was able to forgive Duggy so quickly?
- 2. How else might have Teddy's parents reacted when he told them he wanted to move back to Kamloops? Do you think Teddy would have still decided to go find evidence to show them?
- 3. In chapter 5, Tienna tells Teddy she's never seen a cat in person before. Why do you think there aren't many cats in Ravensbarrow?
- 4. Do you know any myths or legends about supernatural monsters or strange creature sightings? Share your favorites with your classmates. Where do you think these stories come from?
- 5. Milton has a stu e named Mr. Bear. What human characteristics has Milton given him? Have you ever had a favorite stu e? Share a description or story about it.

- 12. Where do you think the gigantic, evil, slimy worm came from? How do you think it got to Ravensbarrow?
- 13. How do you think Candice from the comic shop knew so much about the slimy worm? Do you think that Milton was right in thinking that she might really be from the future?
- 14. Teddy started out trying to collect photographic evidence of the strangeness going on in Ravensbarrow. In the end, he didn't have any photos to show his parents. How do you think he feels about this?
- 15. Milton and Martin's dad is mentioned a few times in the book. What do you think might have happened to him?

.

BRADEN HALLETT is a teacher, author, and illustrator from Kamloops, British Columbia. Braden once had a pet hamster named Scratchy with razor-sharp claws, patchy fur, blood-red eyes, and three legs. Scratchy left quite the impression.

DANNY NEVILLE is an educator, children's author, and editor-in-chief of The Teaching Librarian Magazine.

